Registering for the EDGT web site is easy. Your instructor will provide you with a Student-Access-Key. As you register, record and keep the following information readily available for future reference:

Your Instructor : Anita Kinser

Your Student-Access-Key: S-AK-2571-6380

Your Student Group Name: RCC Nursing Students

Your Username (you create it) _____

Your Password (you create it) _____

VERY IMPORTANT:

When you take any test in the EDGT web site, your test scores will be visible only to the instructor(s) linked to your account. Initially, it will be the instructor stated above. If you want another instructor to be able to see your test scores, you must change the instructor(s) linked to your account. When you go into your account for the first time, the instructor to whom you are currently linked is listed at the top of your account page. Please see page 3 to learn how to change instructors or link your account to multiple instructors. In addition, we highly recommend that you print out all of your test scores in case there are momentary glitches in the Internet or problems with your own computer systems.

to you, use the back button to verify or change the student access key you entered. If your class information is correct, click "next" to continue.

Step 4: Designate a username and password. Fill out the form as requested, then press "next." Please use only letters and numbers in your username and password.

DO NOT use special characters, such as #, $, *, @, etc.

Step 5: Fill out the form on screen to provide us with the information we need to know about you and then click "finish!"

PLEASE NOTE:

To assure that you will receive your e-mail registration confirmation and future e-mails from EDGT, be sure that:

- You have given us a valid e-mail address and your email account is currently active.

- Your e-mail address is spelled correctly.
- There is sufficient room in your e-mail account to receive new e-mails.
- If necessary, place e-mails from EDGT.com on your list of acceptable e-mails. To send you information, we use the following e-mail addresses: info@edgt.com, support@edgt.com, and mary@edgt.com.
- If you do not currently have an e-mail address, use info@edgt.com for this required field. However, keep in mind that if you use this email address, you will not receive your registration confirmation, requests for usernames and passwords, or technical support information. Keep in mind that you can change your e-mail address in your account whenever you like. You can obtain free e-mail accounts from Hotmail, MSN, Yahoo, and Google.
- A summary screen will appear on screen containing the information you have given us. We will send a copy of this information to the e-mail address you provided. We suggest that you print this screen for future reference. When you return again to the EDGT web site, you will need to use the username and password you designated during this registration process.
- You may now start using the EDGT web site.

Accessing and Using EDGT Online

When returning to the EDGT web site, please do the following:

1. Access the EDGT web site at <http://www.edgt.com>.
2. In the form labeled “Returning Users,” login with your username and password. A new window will open containing a menu of all of your user options.
3. Click the option of your choice.
4. Follow the directions on screen to use the option you selected.

PLEASE NOTE:

We delete students who have not been active (taking tests) after six months. However, you can register again on the site as long as your school still has access to any of the EDGT tutorials.

If you are having difficulty disabling a pop-up or cookie blocker, please ask your instructor for the EDGT Technical Solutions, check the Technical Support section on our home page, or send an e-mail to us at support@edgt.com. If you send us an e-mail, be sure to provide us with your first and last names, your instructor, and the name of your school.

You must have Internet Explorer 6.0 or higher (Mac users should use Safari), cookies and pop-up windows enabled on your browser, Internet Explorer’s Content Advisor disabled, and the most current version of the Flash Player in order to access and use the EDGT tutorials and tests. The latest version of Internet Explorer is available free of charge from www.microsoft.com and the latest Flash Player is available free of charge from www.adobe.com. The Flash Player is now usually included with most operating systems. If you need either download, these are one-time-only downloads that only take a few minutes to complete.

In addition, the Content Advisor in Internet Explorer must be TURNED OFF while you are using the EDGT web site. If you are connecting to the website and using a browser such as AOL or MSN, you can minimize this browser and launch Microsoft Internet Explorer. This will increase the size of your browser window and make for easier viewing of the web pages in our web site. In addition, if you are using a phone modem, please allow extra time for the web pages to download and display on your computer screen.

Instructions on how to link to another or to multiple instructors:

You can change your current account to link to another instructor or to multiple instructors or to a different student group for your current instructor. This way you can continue to use the same username and password even though you have more than one instructor. There are two ways of doing this.
