Introducing Tigers' New Head Coach

Tom Craft is in his first year as the Tigers' head coach. A former Palomar College and San Diego State Head Coach, Craft most recently was offensive coordinator at Mt. San Antonio College, helping the Mounties to the 2009 State Championship and National Championship. Craft's community college teams have won three national championships and nine conference titles, while developing seven All-American quarterbacks. Craft's career record before leaving Palomar was 115-15-1.
