Dear Faculty Member,

Please use the attached form to sign up for WebAdvisor for Fall 2005. This paperless method of receiving and submitting Admissions & Records forms is recommended for those teach in Fall 2005.

Faculty Information and Forms available through WebAdvisor

By agreeing to use the online forms, no paper forms (except the first day and permanent attendance rosters) will be generated for your course sections.

Also, if you would like access to student contact information, please visit www.4faculty.org, create your own account, and complete the Module on "Student Privacy Rights and FERPA. Print out the report showing your completion of this module and mail to the Office of Faculty Affairs. Once this report is received, you will be given access to student contact information.

Sincerely,

Kristina Kauffman
Dean of Faculty

Please return the form below to the Office of Faculty Affairs if you wish to use WebAdvisor.

By agreeing to use the online forms, no paper forms (except the first day and permanent attendance rosters) will be generated for your course sections.

The Office of Faculty Affairs will forward your access codes to you once this form has been submitted along with instructions to get started. We encourage you to attend one of our training classes (call for availability #8845) however, attending a training class is not required. Instructions/Tutorials are found on the WebAdvisor's main web page.

To ensure all faculty have been notified of these options, we have sent letters, e-mails and placed notifications in your RCC mailbox. If you have responded to a previous correspondence, please disregard.
