Assessment Center

We want to help ensure our students choose appropriate coursework, especially when they are just starting out. The Matriculation process exists to help students make better, more informed educational choices that will help them realize their educational goals in a timely manner. As part of the Matriculation process, the Assessment test is an important tool to measure student levels of English, Math and Reading.

Generally speaking, a placement test is designed to measure your academic skills. The point of taking a placement test is not to get the highest placement, but to get the most accurate placement. The results of the test plus other academic background information produce a placement which will give students and counselors an indication of each student’s starting point in these subjects.

Serving students district-wide at Riverside City College, Moreno Valley College and Norco College, the Riverside Community College District’s Study Abroad Program offers an unparalleled international education experience. The District’s commitment to international education has been reflected in a wide variety of programs and activities throughout the years. Semester-long programs in Florence, Italy and London, England provide students with an opportunity to make progress toward their educational objectives while being enrolled in general education, transferable courses, while at the same time developing an understanding and appreciation for international issues. The District’s two-week Summer Study Tours offer students as well as college faculty, staff and members of the community an opportunity to travel abroad on cultural excursions designed for all ages and professions. RCCD’s summer educational programs in recent years have included journeys to the Czech Republic, Hungary, Italy, Greece, Turkey, Morocco, and Kenya. The 2014 summer adventure is planned for Spain. In 2010 the Riverside Community College District was the first community college in the nation to offer a full semester program in China and in 2013, 23 students and three faculty traveled to Japan on a two-week tour provided by the Japanese Consulate, again being the only community college in the nation to be included in this endeavor.

Program Philosophy
Philosophically, at the Riverside Community College District, international education is designed in its broadest sense to include all programs, projects, studies, and activities that encourage an individual to learn, understand and care about the world beyond his or her community and to transcend culturally conditioned, ethnocentric perspectives, perceptions and behaviors. We believe that meaningful “institutional stance” should demand that International Education not only increases one’s knowledge; it should also enhance one’s wisdom and affinity with humanity.

Why Study Abroad?
In today’s complex world and competitive job market, the decision to study abroad may be one of the best decisions you ever make. Study abroad is an opportunity to learn from new or different perspectives, to absorb another culture and gain an appreciation for another way of life. No wonder most students who study abroad rate their experience as one of the most important of their undergraduate career!

Many of our former study abroad students have returned to their study site to attend universities, obtain higher degrees, and to establish careers. Our students are employed throughout Europe, China and Japan.

Financial Aid
Financial aid for Study Abroad is available for those who qualify. To check your individual financial aid status, please email our financial aid counselor Jana Gray at jana.gray@rcc.edu. Advise her that you are interested in the Study Abroad program.

6) STUDY ABROAD/SI PROGRAM
The Supplemental Instructional (SI) Program is an academic assistance program that facilitates SI sessions that are open to all students enrolled in designated courses. These SI sessions are regularly scheduled, peer-facilitated, out-of-class review sessions that support the designated academic course.

Benefits to attending SI sessions:

- SI sessions are open to all students in the course and are attended on a voluntary basis free of charge.
- Assistance begins the second week of the term.
- Students who attend SI sessions discover appropriate application of study strategies; e.g., notetaking, graphic organization, questioning techniques, vocabulary acquisition, problem solving, test preparation, and student-to-student collaboration.
- Peer group learning increases understanding and mastery of course content. Students who collaborate earn higher course grades and withdraw less often than non-SI participants.

Riverside City College has one of the most active student government programs in the country. Student government is responsible for representing the social, political and educational concerns of our students. Their main purpose is to provide student leaders with skills beyond what they learn in the classroom. Interpersonal communication, budget control, entrepreneurial skills, creativity, and activity planning are just a few of the skills that our very active student leaders learn.

The Associated Students of the Riverside City College (ASRCC)

The Associated Students of Riverside City College (ASRCC) consists of three branches of government that have something unique to offer each and every student: Executive Branch, Legislative Branch, and Judicial Branch. Additionally, you can become an ambassador with the Multi-Cultural Advisory Council (MCAC), one of many Commissioners on the Board of Commissioners (BOC), represent a club in the Inter-Club Council, become an intern in the Media and Design group, a Justice on the Supreme Court, or serve as a Senator on the Student Senate. Whatever your niche, there is a home and purpose for everyone! Bottom-line, the foundation we are building upon is to be the voice for the student body as a whole, building future leaders through fostering talent, creating lifelong friendships, and making connections that students will never forget. If you’re ready to make this year count, ASRCC is ready to help you make a difference! Join now by emailing your ASRCC Student Body President at aspresriv@rcc.edu. The Student Government Center is located outside the Cafeteria.

How Can I Get Involved in Student Activities?

Nothing is stopping you! Get involved! You will get recognition as well as personal satisfaction for your involvement. Special recognition is awarded to those who are involved in on- or off-campus projects as college volunteers. You are eligible for recognition if you donate 50 or more hours in a single semester. In the past, students have organized blood drives, tutored, assisted in research, visited the elderly, and organized fund-raising projects. You can qualify for recognition by recording your service hours with approval of a faculty advisor or the coordinator of Student Activities. For more information, call (951) 222-8570 at Riverside City College or visit us at www.rivasrcc.org. The Student Activities office is located in the Bradshaw Center, 2nd floor.

The RCC Honors Program offers an enriched academic experience for motivated students aiming to transfer to a four-year university or college. Our honors classes are small (20 students) and taught seminar style. Our students read challenging texts, write original arguments, participate actively in class, and often present their research at statewide conferences. Classrooms are active and dynamic, and the faculty can offer one-on-one mentoring. Honors students at RCC also become part of a close-knit community, going on field trips, taking many of the same classes, studying in the Honors Study Center in the Quad, and often transferring together to the school of their choice.

Students who complete the RCCD Honors Program can take advantage of our transfer agreements, including the UCLA TAP agreement, as well as agreements with UC Irvine, UC Berkeley, UC San Diego, Pomona College, San Jose State School of Engineering, Cal Poly Pomona, and Mills College, among others. These transfer agreements offer priority admission, honors to honors admission, and sometimes access to scholarships for honors transfer students. No matter where you plan to apply, honors classes can help prepare you for upper division work and make your application more competitive when you’re ready to transfer.

All of our courses meet General Education requirements and are articulated with the University of California. You can see our class selection on WebAdvisor. Choose the drop down menu option “honors,” and you’ll see that we offer honors classes in a broad range of general education areas – English, History, Humanities, Art History, Math, Political Science, Geography, Biology, Chemistry, Economics, Philosophy, and Speech Communication. These are many of the classes that you need for transfer; consider taking these requirements in the honors format, and see if it’s a better experience.

Program Entry Requirements
• 3.0 GPA and eligibility for OR completion of English 1A
• Completed honors program application (just email thatcher.carter@rcc.edu for an application)

The Honors Program offers several benefits to students:
• Transfer agreements, including the UCLA TAP agreement.
• Smaller classes: honors classes have a maximum of 20 students and are taught seminar style, emphasizing active student participation.
• Help in the transfer process: workshops, one-on-one mentoring, help from honors coordinators and faculty in preparing applications for university admissions and scholarships.
• Field trips: cultural activities, college visits, and other enrichment activities.
• Leadership opportunities. Students may serve as a class advocate on the Honors Advisory Council, as a director in the Honors Student Council, or as a volunteer in outreach activities.
• Our Honors Center: a place for gathering; it allows for informal study groups, personalized interaction with honors professors, access to transfer advice and research materials, and a general sense of belonging to a cohort of similarly-interested students
• Scholarships and essay contests

For more information, check out our website http://academic.rcc.edu/honors/ and our Facebook page (“RCCD Honors Program”) and most importantly, our video www.youtube.com/RCCDHonors.
