

Riverside City College
Institutional Effectiveness Leadership Council
 2016-2017 Membership

PURPOSE

Leadership councils make their recommendations to the Educational Program Oversight Committee which in turn, after discussion, forwards the recommendation to the President of the College.

COMPOSITION

Each leadership council should include, at a minimum, one member from each of the constituency groups. Each council is jointly chaired by a member of the faculty, the staff, the management, and the student government. At the first meeting of the Leadership Council the joint chairs shall select a presiding chair. Each constituency group shall be responsible for appointing its representatives to leadership councils. Membership of each council is unlimited; however, there are 20 voting members. The presiding chair only votes in case of a tie. Voting members shall consist of: The (4) joint chairs, one (1) Student, one (1) Administrator, nine (9) Faculty, and five (5) Staff.
