I. The Unit PROGRAM REVIEW

The Unit Program Review should reflect the consensus of the staff within the unit. It is meant to provide a broad understanding of the unit, current trends related to the unit's mission, and how the unit serves to meet the overall mission or goals of Riverside Community College District and its campuses.

1. What is the mission of your unit?

The mission of the Student Success Committee is to implement a cohesive and comprehensive institutional plan to ensure student's continuous progression towards self-defined goals and inspire an increased awareness and commitment to lifelong learning. (Student Success Mission)

2. Identify or outline how your unit serves the mission of your campus/college. Please limit to a single paragraph.

In line with Student Success mission my unit serves a multitude of academic needs and provides support to students as indicated in the college's mission statement. Through Supplemental Instruction, we offer support services to students in basic skills, CTE and in the STEM fields. In addition, our Teacher Preparation and Early Childhood Education departments work in collaboration with our four year universities and K-12 partners to increase and enhance the teaching and learning opportunities for students at both Riverside City College and at the Innovative Learning Center at Stokoe Elementary. Likewise, our CAP learning communities programs strives to support our diverse community of learners. All of the functions of our units look to ensure students achieve education goals whether they are basic skills, CTE or transfer students.

3. List the functions of your unit.

Function	Done in Collaboration with (leave blank if this function is not in collaboration with another unit)
Supplemental Instruction	STEM/CCRAA
Community for Academic Progress Program
Assessment and SLOs	Institutional Effectiveness

Before writing your goals and objectives be sure to review other Program/Unit Review documents related to your unit to discern if there are service needs you wish to address. Please check with the Office of Institutional Effectiveness (Debbie.mcdowell@rcc.edu) for a list of requests relevant to your unit. We can sort these by form, type of unit, etc., etc., and provide an Excel spreadsheet(s) of requests. Please allow a three-day turn around for your request to be fulfilled, though most are filled within 24 hours.

II. Assessment

Why Administrative Units Conduct Assessments: Research indicates that collecting and analyzing evidence leads to improvement of institutional or unit level effectiveness. In addition it:

- Ensures units are examining their services and programs
- Documents outcomes assessment and internal improvement efforts
- Allows each unit to demonstrate how well it is performing
- Allows for requesting resources
- Relies on fact, not perception
- Allows unit staff to prioritize improvements.

Steps to Developing Assessment Plans & Reports

- 1. Unit develops measurable Service Area Outcomes (SAO). An SAO is a “specific statement that describes the benefit that a [unit] hopes to achieve or the impact [. . .] that is a result of the work that your unit performs. Outcomes should be:
 - challenging but attainable”
 - articulate what the unit wants to achieve
 - indicate end results for the unit rather than actions
 - relate to the unit’s mission and vision
 - focus on the benefit to the recipient of the service
 - be stable over a number of years. If it is time dependent, it is most likely a goal not an outcome; and
 - be measurable and directly related to the work of your unit.⁹

Stems for writing outcomes can include:

- “In support of student learning, staff will _____”
- “Students are aware of _____”
- “Administrators (or staff) have the _____”

⁹ Source: The American University in Cairo. “A guide to developing and implementing effective outcomes assessment: Academic support and administrative units.” December 1, 2007. Retrieved on the internet at <http://ipart.aucegypt.edu>

- 2. Unit defines how it will assess progress (non-evaluative) towards the outcomes. The unit might consider taking an inventory of current tools being used. For example:
- what information is being collected already?
 - what assessment are you already using?

Methods that can be used to measure progress include, for example:

- student satisfaction surveys
 - number and type of complaints
 - growth in a specific function
 - comparisons to professional organizations' best practices
 - focus groups
 - opinion surveys
 - time to complete a task
- 3. Unit completes the assessment plan and carries out the assessment. In order to ensure the plan is completed
- designate a coordinator for the assessment project and/or assign responsibility for individual components
 - develop a timeline indicating when work will be collected, results tabulated, analysis completed, and subsequent dialogues.
- 4. Unit gathers information, analyzes results, communicates findings, and takes action. This step is important as it is used to identify changes needed to improve efficiency, effectiveness, and unit performance. It should also be applied to for planning and budgeting and resource allocation requests (short term and long term). Ultimately it may be tied to the institution's ability to achieve its mission.

What is Administrative Unit Program Review?

Administrative Unit Program Review is a collaborative goal-setting and assessment process designed to help improve and refine college services. It is intended to be flexible, collegial, relevant, practical, and should result in a clear sense of direction and accomplishment for participants. All non-instructional service areas (hereafter referred to as “administrative units”) undergo self-study as part of a process that results in a comprehensive assessment of institutional effectiveness. A separate, but similar process is applied to Student Services units. When completed the unit representatives will present their self-study to the District Program Review Committee for approval. Members of the District Assessment Committee will provide the Program Review Committee with recommendations regarding your future assessment plans. The linkage between program review and strategic planning is now fully operational. Thus, resource allocations and planning for your unit will be directly impacted by this plan.

Administrative Units will be asked to update their program review document annually. It is anticipated that the same format will be used and updates should require only minimal editing.

The most important extrinsic purpose of this review is for you to receive the resources you need (equipment, staff, etc.) and to meet accreditation standards. The intrinsic purpose of the self-study process is to help administrative units clarify and achieve their goals. In addition, the process aids units in strengthening the bonds within the college community and fostering cooperation with instructional units.

The major objectives of Program Review are to:

1. State program goals and align future goals with the College’s mission and goals.
2. Collect and analyze data on key performance indicators, administrative unit outcomes, program activities, and accomplishments.
3. Examine and document the effectiveness of student support and administrative services.

4. Develop recommendations and strategies concerning future program directions and needs (e.g. budget, staffing, and resources).
5. Comply with Accreditation Standards, Federal and State law, Title 5, Student Equity, VTEA, matriculation (including prerequisite and co-requisite standards), ADA (American with Disabilities Act), and other legal or certification requirements.

The Legal and Professional Basis for Program Review

TITLE 5, Section 51022(a)

The governing board of each community college district shall, no later than July 1, 1984, develop, file with the Chancellor, and carry out its policies for the establishment, modification, or discontinuance of courses or programs. Such policies shall incorporate statutory responsibilities regarding vocational or occupational training program review as specified in section 78016 of the Education Code.

ACCJC STANDARDS

Standard 1B. Improving Institutional Effectiveness

The institution demonstrates a conscious effort to produce and support student learning, measures that learning, assesses how well learning is occurring, and makes changes to improve student learning. The institution also organizes its key processes and allocates its resources to effectively support student learning. The institution demonstrates its effectiveness by providing 1) evidence of the achievement of student learning outcomes and 2) evidence of institution and program performance. The institution uses ongoing and systematic evaluation and planning to refine its key processes and improve student learning.

1. The institution maintains an ongoing, collegial, self-reflective dialogue about the continuous improvement of student learning and institutional processes.
2. The institution sets goals to improve its effectiveness consistent with its stated purposes. The institution articulates its goals and states the objectives derived from them in measurable terms so that the degree to which they are achieved can be determined and widely discussed. The institutional members understand these goals and work collaboratively toward their achievement.
3. The institution assesses progress toward achieving its stated goals and makes decisions regarding the improvement of institutional effectiveness in an ongoing and systematic cycle of evaluation, integrated planning, resource allocation, implementation, and re-evaluation. Evaluation is based on analyses of both quantitative and qualitative data.
4. The institution provides evidence that the planning process is broad-based, offers opportunities for input by appropriate constituencies, allocates necessary resources, and leads to improvement of institutional effectiveness.

5. The institution uses documented assessment results to communicate matters of quality assurance to appropriate constituencies.
6. The institution assures the effectiveness of its ongoing planning and resource allocation processes by systematically reviewing and modifying, as appropriate, all parts of the cycle, including institutional and other research efforts.
7. The institution assesses its evaluation mechanisms through a systematic review of their effectiveness in improving instructional programs, student support services, and library and other learning support services.

EDUCATION CODE, Section 78016

(2) Does not represent unnecessary duplication of other manpower training programs in the area. (3) Is of demonstrated effectiveness as measured by the employment and completion success of its students.

(b) Any program that does not meet the requirements of subdivision (a) and the standards promulgated by the governing board shall be terminated within one year.
