4. Distance Education Subcommittee

Distance Education Standing Committee

a. In fulfillment of the purpose as a standing committee of the RCCAS, the DEC shall represent the faculty through the Senate to the Administration and to the Board of Trustees on all matters relating to the DE modality of any courses offered by the College. The Committee may freely use the expertise of all faculty on questions regarding the integrity of DE modalities and shall pay special attention to the general issues of DE philosophy and development.

b. The Distance Education Committee shall be composed of Department representatives serving two-year terms of office. When new departments are established and their election year specified in the Bylaws or Bylaw revision is not synchronous with the time of scheduled elections or bylaws revision, a representative shall be elected to fill the length of the term remaining until the next scheduled election.

c. Departments shall elect Distance Education representatives in odd or even-numbered years:

Odd-numbered years: Applied Technology; Behavioral Sciences/Psychology; Business, Law, and Computer Information Systems; Communication Studies: English & Media Studies; History, Philosophy, Humanities, and Ethnic Studies; Library & Learning Resources; Life Sciences; Mathematics; Music; World Languages.

Even- numbered years: Art; Chemistry; Cosmetology; Counseling/Student Activities; School of Education & Teacher Preparation; Economics, Geography, Political Science; Nursing; Dance and Theater; Physical Science; Kinesiology.
